

U.S. Seafood Trade Mission to Southeast Asia

September 10 - September 14, 2017

This trade mission is a joint activity of six project partners: Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute, American Indian Foods, Food Export – Midwest, Food Export – Northeast, SUSTA and WUSATA. The project is being led by Food Export – Northeast and made possible through funding from the Foreign Agricultural Service of the USDA.

Benefits of Participation:

- One-on-one meetings with qualified buyers from Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand, Vietnam and the Philippines
- Market briefings by local USDA, Foreign Agricultural Service
- Inclusion in Trade Mission brochure containing your company profile details and products
- Opportunities to meet with market experts from Vietnam, Indonesia and Singapore
- Participation in education event and lunch for buyers, chefs and media on U.S. Seafood
- Optional retail and seafood market tours in Singapore and Bangkok; optional tour to seafood processing facilities in Thailand

Register Now on Our Events
Calendar!

Participation Fee: $300

Registration Deadline: June 9, 2017

For more information, please contact: Sandy Quintero, WUSATA – Global Connect Coordinator – sandy@wusata.org or 360-693-3373, who will put you in contact with the seafood program coordinator.

U.S. seafood suppliers affiliated with the six partner groups are eligible to submit a pre-application for participation. Due to the very limited number of spaces for this mission, interested suppliers should submit the pre-application as soon as possible. If accepted on the mission, suppliers must complete a supplier profile by June 9, 2017 to confirm their place on the mission. Any open spots at that time will be filled from a waitlist based on submission date. Participants are responsible for costs of airfare, lodging, meals and incidental expenses.

Products of the U.S.A.

WUSATA: