EVENT DETAILS

The Colorado Department of Agriculture, in cooperation with WUSATA®, will be coordinating participation in the following activity: InterZoo Trade Show 2012. WUSATA® will provide each company a (1.5 x 3 sqm) stand within the WUSATA® section. Cost for each stand is $2,000 (versus $5,000 for individual booths) - space is limited, so we encourage early registration. In addition, companies attending will also receive a $750 airfare reimbursement (for one traveler only) with proper back-up documentation. If you already have a booth at InterZoo, and are within the WUSATA region, then you can sign up for our buyer matchmaking service at no cost. We will provide introductions and arrange meetings with at least 4 qualified buyers.
