2025 ANTAD Trade Show Pavilion

Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mexico

March 25-27, 2025

The Western U.S. Agricultural Trade Association (WUSATA®) and the 15 Western Region Departments of Agriculture are pleased to announce their participation in and registration for the ANTAD Trade Show, organized by the USDA's Foreign Agricultural Service.

Expo ANTAD is the premier and largest retail trade show in Mexico, drawing over 37,000 visitors and 1,700 exhibitors annually. As Mexico's leading food industry exhibition, it serves as an optimal platform for international exhibitors to present their products to key buyers, importers, and industry professionals.

Participation in this event is eligible for WUSATA's FundMatch Program, which offers up to 50% reimbursement for approved expenses related to product showcases, including registration fees and shipping costs. For more information, please contact your WUSATA Engagement Executive at export@wusata.org.

Benefits of Participation:

ANTAD provides a premier platform for innovation, collaboration, and growth. Showcase your products at WUSATA's Pavilion during Mexico's largest food and hospitality trade show. This prestigious opportunity allows potential Mexican buyers, importers, and industry experts to view and engage with your products within the USA Pavilion - WUSATA's premium location.

Participating companies will receive a kiosk with signage and seating. Additionally, each company will be allocated one hotel room per night for up to four nights. An interpreter, available for shared use among participating companies, will also be provided.
