EVENT DETAILS

Japan Consumer-Oriented Inbound Mission to Guam

April 15-18, 2026

Guam

Designed to open doors to the Japanese market, this inbound trade mission is tailored for Western U.S. suppliers who are new to export or new to Japan and offer craft, value-added products and distinctive regional specialties often purchased as souvenir and tourist gift items. Participants will have the opportunity to connect directly with Japanese boutique retailers, specialty distributors, and tourist-focused buyers actively seeking unique, high-quality products with strong local identity.

Through this mission, suppliers will gain practical insight into the Japanese market, explore international business opportunities, and begin building meaningful supplier-buyer relationships that support long-term export growth.

Benefits of Participation:

- An opportunity to connect with Japanese buyers through targeted B2B meetings and a dedicated product showcase.
- Note: Airfare, lodging and ground transportation not provided for Western U.S. Suppliers.

Itinerary:

- April 15: Japan buyers Guam arrival
- April 16: B2B meetings, product showcase
- April 17: B2B meetings, product showcase
- April 18: Japan buyers Guam departure

Participation Fee: $50
