Benefits of participating in the activity: - Receive a $1,000 discount on show organizer booth prices - Meet one-on-one with pre-screened buyers from China at your booth - Capitalize on marketing efforts by attending both the Food Ingredients China Trade Show and a consecutive Outbound Trade Mission to Beijing - Take advantage of WUSATA's value-added services and interpreters This will be an excellent opportunity for companies to participate in the rapidly growing China food ingredients market. The Food Ingredients (FI) China Trade Show is one of the largest exhibitions in China, and is growing to be one of the largest shows in Asia. Approximately 70,000+ buyers, and 1,300+ exhibitors from 20 countries, are expected for this exhibition in 2014. The market for food ingredients is enormous with over $532 billion in sales by over 36,000 food processing companies in China in 2011. Last year U.S exports of food ingredients to China were $50.5 billion with a growth of 22.9% from 2011. The increasing appetite for Western-style food products is boosting demand and sales. FI China Trade Show 2014 will host 15 booths in the WUSATA section, inside the U.S. pavilion, including 6 corner booths (limit 2 booths per company, and only one corner per company). Included in the booth price, WUSATA will offer individualized meetings, arranged by our WUSATA contractor in China, and an interpreter will be provided for each company during the entire exhibition. Further expand your international reach by attending WUSATA's Food Ingredients Outbound Trade Mission to Beijing. This event will take place immediately following the FI China Trade Show on March 28-29, 2014. For companies attending FI China, this trade mission is offered at a 50% discount. Please visit the below "Download More Information" area for a registration link for this activity. Separate registration is required for each activity.
